

Citizenship Initiative

Join us in April 2023 for FREE Online Naturalization Preparation Classes

The Museum of the American Revolution, in partnership with the San Francisco Public Library, offers free civics and history classes to help immigrants prepare for the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services naturalization exam.

- PARTICIPANTS Classes are open to anyone considering taking the U.S. citizenship test and are accessible for intermediate-level English language learners.
- DESCRIPTION This course includes the Museum of the American Revolution's rich collection of objects, art and stories to help teach the main components of the citizenship exam: American Government, American History and Integrated Civics.
- LAST CLASS Our final class features a special information session presented by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services community relations officer, providing helpful resources on the citizenship application process, eligibility screening, and the personal interview.
- TIMES & DATES Mondays and Wednesdays, April 17 – May 10, 2023, 6 - 7:30pm ET/ 3 - 4:30pm PT, for a total of 8 sessions.
- BONUS CLASS Mock Naturalization Interview Session: Thursday, May 11, 2023, 6 - 7:30pm ET/ 3 - 4:30pm PT
